ADJUTANTS

The Cassock is the foundation garment of the Bishop and Apostle, over which all other garments are layered. It is a close-fitting garment, reaching to the feet, and may be worn by all ordained clergy as a symbol of a servant. The Apostle wears the cassock in accordance with the Lord's instruction "whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant." (Matthew 20:27)

The Cincture is a wide belt, which is tied around the waist, even as the Apostle is exhorted to gird herself with truth. It also speaks to us of the humility which our Lord girded Himself with a towel as He washed His disciples' feet.

The Rochet is a white garment with full sleeves, which are tied at the wrist by bands. It is a ceremonial garment that serves as a symbol of the priesthood. It is reminiscent of the linen ephod worn by the high priest in the book of Leviticus.

The Chimere is a sleeveless gown worn over the rochet and represents the mantle of a prophet. It is worn exclusively by the Apostles and Bishops because they are the chief proclaimers and defenders of the faith in the apostolic tradition. It is often worn by Overseers with special dispensation.

The Tippet is a skillful wide cut black material worn over the chimere, and may be embellished with the personal coat of arms of the Apostle or Bishop, the Diocesan coat of arms or the seminary of matriculation. The Tippet is used instead of the stole that is normally used with the Chausable.

The Zucchetto is the indoor covering. A small, semispherical headdress, skullcap worn by the clergy. It is ordinarily made of cloth or skin. The color is scarlet, red-purple, blue-purple, cardinal-red or magenta.

The Gold Chain & Pectoral Cross is worn only by Apostles and Bishops.

The cross of Gold is hung around the Apostle's neck as a symbol of his imprisonment for Christ. The gold chain is a symbol of endurance, which emphasizes that the wearer is not a novice. The cross is the sign of salvation and man's redemption. Although it is placed on a beautiful gold chain, it is not suspended around the neck, but is placed in the left-hand pocket. Therefore it is not worn, but borne over the wearer's heart.

The Bishop's Ring is gold with amethyst and the Apostle's Ring is gold with a Red stone as a Ruby; it depends on preference. The ring is worn on the right hand as the signet of the Bishop's and Apostle's authority, as well as his dedication to Christ and His Church.

The Crozier is a tall staff which represents the office of the Shepherd. It is a symbol of a Bishop's authority and role as a watchman and overseer of God's precious people.

The preferred material for wear with clergy attire is leather. All other skins and fabrics (Alligator, Crocodile, Ostrich, Snake, Suede, etc.) are not appropriate for wear with clergy attire.
